

Mokena Man Critically Injured In Route 30 Accident Frankfort Township Valuation Placed At $1,398,169

ASSESSOR JOE KOHL GIVES FIGURES BASED ON VALUES SET UP IN '42

ABOUT THIS — AND — ABOUT THAT

By OLIVER GEDEIST

NOT SO BAD—It's good that men and women running for office are not nearly as bad as opposing candidates say they are. If they were, what a mess we'd be in!

JEALOUSY—Jealousy is an insidious thing. The other day I watched two birds. They were flying. One had a morsel in its beak. The other bird wanted it. They flew up and down and around. Reminded of dust in a small whirlwind. Wonder how they kept from dizziness. Finally the pursuing bird won, overtaking the chased bird near loser.

LIKE HUMANS—That's the way it is with humans. Jealousy can't crop up and plague people without both sides losing. It hurts. With our vaunted intelligence it is strange that one cannot seek a prize without becoming angry at others who seek the same honors. Good neighbors become for a time bitter enemies, saying things that are not true, hurting the souls of good people. Too often enmity lasts, then, for a lifetime. Envy, hate, cannot exist in a clear-thinking mind. It prevents clear thinking. It prevents happiness.

APPLIES EVERYWHERE—The same thing applies to nations. Where we should respect the philosophies of other peoples, even if we don't want them for ourselves, we ridicule, we criticize, and then wonder why they in turn criticize us. Germany's jealousy of England's trade started two wars. The Germans are good people—I hope, because I have a sizeable slice of the Germanic in me. But jealousy in high places got down into the rank and file—and on both sides. War came. Just as jealousy starts little wars in families, between neighbors. It's bad.

THE BIRDS—Only a bit before the birds (up at the top, remember?) began the chase because one had caught some food, they were chirping merrily, making beautiful sound. And they spoiled it. If we could keep the beautiful before us, keep out harsh thought, keep our minds and hearts filled with kindness and understanding, these simply would be no room for jealousy and consequent unhappiness.

UNTRUE SAYING—There's an old saying that "experience teaches." But does it? I think not, on the whole. People go through life getting mad over and over and over, never remembering the inconclusiveness of the other times they were mad and at war with some one about something—something even forgotten long before. No, I fear experience merely increases hardness of heart in many instances. And it's too bad.

DON'T PLAY WITH BEARS—Last week a little boy, feeling good in his generous little heart, wanted to give some of his goodies to a bear in the zoo. But the bear did not appreciate the offer. The little fellow was saved by a heroic man—one whose selfishness led him to take serious risk to save the three-and-a-half year old child from death. A loving disposition led the boy to death; human love in his heart led the man to risk himself to save the child. It's a happy ending, because the man escaped injury.

ANOTHER GOOD HEART—But there was another good heart around. The man who saved the boy passed a prized camera to some one to hold. That person had a mean heart, made away with the camera. Then came the other good heart—a man who said he would buy the finest camera possible to replace the stolen camera. There's hope as long as there are a few around like the two men.

Frankfort township's property values have been set at $1,398,169, according to a report made public this week by Joe Kohl, township assessor.

In making his report, Mr. Kohl stated that horses, cattle, hogs are below previous years in numbers. Lack of help, some farmers say, is the cause of this, along with other postwar problems that have been plaguing rural areas since the end of hostilities.

The report shows 367 dogs in the township.

Automobiles in the area are listed at 637, while 77 trucks are reported. Valuations for 1947 are not based on present high prices, Mr. Kohl stated. The year 1942 was taken as a basis for valuation for this year, according to the assessor.

In making his report public, Mr. Kohl broke down the valuations into three separate divisions. Totals for each division are shown, for total personal property, farm real estate, and for lots and improvement. Details of the three divisions were not given, because of the multitude of items and details that would be required.

Personal property in the area is listed at $256,212.

Farm real estate is set at $741,717.

Lots and improvement, $400,240.

Automobiles in the area are assessed at $33,620, and trucks at $7,310. These items are included in the total personal property shown.

N. E. WILL COUNTY Softball LEAGUE

Mokena Robin's will be host to the Joliet Speed Boy club this Friday, July 25. This team will be the strongest thus far to face the highly respected young Robin team. Game time will be 9 p. m.

Next Tuesday evening, July 29, the Robins will travel to New Lenox to bid for their fourth straight league game while New Lenox will be after their fifth win in a row. In the past three meetings with New Lenox, Mokena has dropped every decision in the last two innings of play. The team will meet at Robinson's field between 7:30 and 8 p. m.

Last week results are as follows: Mokena beat Lincoln Estates last Tuesday evening 22 to 4. "Swede" Benson being the winning pitcher, allowing Lincoln Estates nine scattered hits. Friday, July 18, the favorite Pacomatic club from Joliet invaded Mokena for a practice game. It proved to be practice in every sense of the word. The score: Mokena 18, Pacomatics 6.

Information Lacking
The league standings cannot be published because of lack of information and result of games played, the league secretary reported.

The first games of round two will be played as follows:

Goodenow at Lincoln Estates, Tuesday, July 22.

New Lenox at Matteson, Sunday, July 20.

Matteson at Goodenow, Sunday, July 27.

Mokena at New Lenox, Tuesday, July 29.

Gas Receipts Up $8,184 In Month

Will county gas receipts for June were $1,184 more than was allotted for the month of May, reports received this week indicated. The total allotment to the county for June was $27,005, against $18,821 for May. This reflects increased travel and increased gasoline sales in June.

Will Wed Tomorrow

Mr. and Mrs. John Kuse, Sr., of Frankfort have announced the coming wedding of their daughter May to Paul Schrank, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Schrank of Mokena.

The wedding will take place at 2:30 tomorrow, Saturday afternoon, July 26, in Immanuel Lutheran church, Mokena, with the Rev. A. W. Gode, pastor, officiating at the double-ring ceremony.

Schrank-Hamilton

Miss Freida Schrank, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Schrank of Mokena, became the bride of Donald Hamilton, son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Hamilton of New Lenox, in a wedding ceremony at 2:30 Sunday afternoon in Immanuel Lutheran church, Mokena, the pastor, the Rev. A. W. Gode, officiating at the double-ring service.

Wedding music was provided by Walter Schrank, brother of the bride. The bride was dressed in white satin with long train veil, wore a gold cross, a gift of the groom, carried American beauty roses. Gloves were omitted.

Bride's attendants were Miss Betty Hamilton, maid of honor, and Miss Bernice Stege, bridesmaid. Miss Hamilton employed a pink net and wore cuff sleeves; carried yellow roses. Miss Stege wore a pink net with puff sleeves and carried pink roses.

Mothers of the principals wore navy blue dresses and carried pink carnations.

The groom's attendants were Alfred Schrank and Herbert Schrank, and the ushers were Donald Helenhouse and Albert Hamilton.

Following the wedding a dinner reception was held at the home of the bride's parents for 50 persons, with white, pink, and blue the set colors; a five-tier cake centered the table. Later followed a reception and dance at Hatch hall.

Upon returning from a wedding trip, Mr. and Mrs. Hamilton will be at home on Cooper avenue, New Lenox.

Mrs. William Helenhouse was in charge of the guest book.

"Spin" Kills Motor; Plane Down In Mokena

For the second time within a few weeks, Mokena has been host to unintentional visitors from the sky.

The most recent was Monday of this week, when an unidentified Piper cub plane was forced down on the Bartlett subdivision immediately north of Mokena, apparently unobserved by many people, although not going without notice by Wesley Nelson, 13, of Mokena, and several boys in the vicinity.

The landing seemingly occurred as the result of a "spin" at 4000-foot elevation, the motor cutting out and forcing the dead landing.

The name of the pilot was not secured, nor other information, except that after some "fixing" the men got back into the plane and took off from the field.

St. Mary's Picnic

St. Mary's picnic, planned for this Sunday, July 27, will have an interesting series of events. Many prizes have been planned in novel fashion, and a pretty big time is assured, with a special door prize on free registration.

Picnic hour is 2 o'clock, but that's only the beginning. Harold Miller, general chairman, stated. It seems likely that picknicking and fun time will last perhaps right up to midnight.

The picnic will be held on the church grounds, Wolf road, north of Front street.

New Lenox Home Bureau

New Lenox Home Bureau unit was scheduled to hold a regular session today, Friday. Time: 1:30. Hostess is Mrs. Fern Brown, South Cedar road.

MOKENA RACER NARROWLY ESCAPES DEATH AS MIDGET LEAVES TRACK

When the spring attached to a wheel of his midget racing car broke during a race at Hansen stadium, Chicago, last Friday night, 25-year-old Chuck Hostert of Mokena narrowly escaped serious injury as his machine slid off the track and wedged under a nearby truck.

The accident occurred when the Mokena racer was driving second in the race. When the spring holding the wheel broke, he lost control of the midget car and it tore through the canvas surrounding the track and rolled under an army-type truck which was parked near the canvas fencing.

Lenz-Luhning

Details have been received in Frankfort of the marriage June 8, in Renville, Minn., of Miss Evelyn Lenz, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Lenz of Renville, to Lloyd Luhning, son of John Luhning of Frankfort. They are making their home in Frankfort. The ceremony was read by the pastor of St. John's Lutheran church in Renville, the Rev. Mr. Donn.

For the wedding ceremony the bride wore a dress of white chiffon trimmed with French lace and carried a bouquet of American beauty roses. Her only jewelry was a single strand of pearls, a gift of the groom. The maid of honor, Mrs. Fred Lohmeyer, sister of the bride, was attired in a sky-blue chiffon dress and wore a corsage of white carnations and red roses. Fred Lohmeyer served as best man.

A wedding dinner was served at the bride's home with the immediate families. The bride's table was covered with white linen, and centered with a three-tiered wedding cake; with blue and white candelabra at each end. Mr. John and Mr. Frank Luhning of Frankfort were in attendance.

When the couple left on their wedding trip Mrs. Luhning was wearing a coral dress with white accessories. Her corsage were lilies of the valley.

7,000 at Tractor Show

Recently Earl Goodson of the Tinley firm bearing his name joined in one of the largest mass gatherings for a business program ever held in this part of the country.

Mr. Goodson reports that there were 7,000 farmers and families in attendance near Aurora at the unveiling of International Harvester company's new "Cub" tractor. A large number met at Mr. Goodson's place and left in a group to attend the mass affair.

METHODISTS TO HEAR BISHOP

Bishop Ralph Magee of the Methodist church is to be the speaker Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock at the beginning of a week's camp meeting on the grounds on 147th street. Evening meetings throughout the week are scheduled for 8 o'clock.

IMMANUEL PICNIC

Immanuel Lutheran church of Mokena, the Rev. A. W. Gode, pastor, will hold its annual picnic Sunday, August 3, Mr. Gode announced this week.

Services this Sunday, the 27th, will be discontinued because of the 100th anniversary celebration of the founding of the Missouri synod, of which the church is a part. Full services will be resumed August 3.

Family Death Calls Publisher to W. Coast

Mrs. Margaret M. Semmler, publisher, left Chicago Sunday by plane for Bothell, Wash., where she was called by the death of her brother-in-law, W. A. Campbell.

The publisher traveled on Northwest lines to Seattle, where she was met by members of the family to be driven to near-by Bothell. She expects to be gone a week or two, and may stop in Los Angeles on the return trip.

4-H Achievement Days To Be Held At Joliet

Will county "achievement days" for 4-H girls have been set for July 31 and August 1 this year, at Joliet township high school. This show is always held in Joliet just before the state fair so the 4-H girls may participate in the state competition.

Each 4-H girl must exhibit her project at the county achievement show in order to complete the projects for the year. As she may be enrolled in more than one project, there are always more exhibitors than there are girls enrolled in 4-H clubs.

The projects from which they have chosen this year are clothing, consumer buying of clothing, preserve your fruits and vegetables, use of dairy foods, draped dressing tables, flower arrangements, outdoor meals, yeast breads, and ways of using fruits and vegetables.

It is customary to have home advisers from other counties judge the projects, and thereby select the costumes and demonstrations which will be sent to the state fair. This year Mrs. Charlotte Herron, Kane county, home adviser, and Mrs. Florence Hobson, Cook county, assistant home adviser, will act as judges. These home advisers will also indicate the ribbons which should be awarded to each girl for her project.

Kohlhagen-Fleck

Sunday, July 20, at 3 p. m., a simple but pretty wedding took place in St. Peter's Evangelical church, Frankfort, when Frank Fleck and Miss Annette Kohlhagen became husband and wife. The Rev. Erich Bizer officiated at the double-ring service. Mrs. Bizer presided at the organ, playing a group of love songs preceding the ceremony. She also accompanied her son, Robert Bizer, when he sang "O Promise Me," after which the candles were lighted by the ushers, Russell Kohlhagen, brother of the bride and Arthur Fleck, brother of the groom. Mrs. Russell Kohlhagen, matron of honor, preceded the bride down the aisle. She was attired in a pink - chiffon - over - satin - floor - length gown, with matching blusher and elbow-length gloves. She carried a bouquet of yellow roses tied with satin ribbon. The bride then entered on the arm of her father. Her attire was of white chiffon over satin, long tapering sleeves and train; her elbow-length veil was trimmed with French lace, and was held in place with a tiara of seed pearls. Her bouquet consisted of white roses. John Fleck served his brother as best man.

After the marriage vows were spoken the soloist sang the "Lord's Prayer." Following the ceremony a dinner was served to the immediate relatives in the dining room of the church, with about 90 present.

The altar of the church was decked with garden flowers and palms.

Estates P. T. O. Party To Be Photographed

Ann Rutledge school P. T. O. Lincoln Estates, is introducing a new note at its box supper in the school building tomorrow (Saturday) evening at 7 o'clock, according to an announcement made this week.

It was stated that a photographer from a Chicago daily newspaper will take photographs of the event, preliminary to a special write-up of the school and perhaps other phases of the communities life.

Donna Bennett Wins Show Ticket Contest

Donna Bennett, 15-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Bennett, Wolf road, Mokena, yesterday (Thursday) attended a showing of "The Perils of Pauline" in a Chicago theater, as a result of a prize-winning letter on reasons why she wanted to see the show.

Donna is a high-school student and attends Orland high school.

Nicholas Heiman, Jr., of Mokena is in Silver Cross hospital, Joliet, dangerously injured as a result of an accident last Saturday morning while on his way to work. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Nick Heiman of Mokena.

According to information given by the family, the injured man was on his way to work when he was knocked off the road by a car allegedly driven by David Edman, 28, of 1211 Cutter street, Joliet.

It was stated that Mr. Heiman, who is 22 years of age, a former serviceman, was riding west when, on Owens hill, route 30, about one-half mile west of Wolf road, the car driven by David Edman cut out and attempted to pass another car, hitting the Heiman motorcycle, although it is said that the place of the attempted passing was in a no-passing zone.

A truck driver, Victor Tempe of Pontiac, Mich., operator of a Gray Transport truck, was a witness to the accident, as was Gerald Dames of Joliet, who picked up Mr. Heiman about 50 feet from where he had been hit and took him to Silver Cross hospital.

David Edman allegedly had passed either the truck or another car just before attempting to pass the car which brought him into contact with Mr. Heiman, resulting in Mr. Heiman either being dragged or thrown about 50 feet away, along with his motorcycle.

The injured man was found to have a compound fracture of the left leg just above the knee, the passing car having struck him on his left side. Other injuries discovered upon examination at the hospital were head abrasions and scratches on body.

It was thought that the victim of the accident was progressing favorably through the first two days, but it was found that brain concussion had been inflicted and on Wednesday the family was called to the hospital because of his condition. Skull fracture, it is understood, was considered likely, although Mr. Heiman's condition was such that x-rays could not be taken. Serious back damage apparently had been received when he was struck. His leg was put on boards, but the patient's weakness prevented putting the broken member into a cast.

David Edman, it is understood, was at one time a pitcher in Mokena baseball.

State police officers Herman Deeke of Beecher and Officer Becker of State made the investigation. It is understood that charges have not been made against Mr. Edman, who is married.

Orland Home Bureau

The regular meeting of the Orland Home Bureau unit met Friday evening, July 18, at 8 o'clock in the home of Mrs. Paul Lembke with 10 members and two guests present. Minutes were read and approved. Katherine E. Moore was accepted as a new member. The South Cook County 4-H Fair will be held in Tinley Park Aug. 26 and 27.

Vivian Maue presented the major lesson, "health before and after forty," which was very interesting and important to all of us.

There will be no meeting in August, which is our picnic month. The September meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Harry Lozaw September 19 at 8 p. m. Major lesson will be "consumer speaks," given by the home adviser.

At the October meeting there will be a demonstration on how to make Christmas tree ornaments from the tops and bottoms of tin cans. It is suggested that interested ladies save their tin cans.

Meeting adjourned and refreshments were served by Vivian Maue and Frances Lozaw. Emma Bernard, publicity chairman.

Silver Cross Fund

Mokena Silver Cross Campaign Chairman Elmer Cooper has reported on collection for the hospital expansion drive. Total collected in Mokena was $483.

4-H South Cook Fair Program at Tinley Is Announced

Committees in charge of South Cook county 4-H fair to be held August 26 and 27 in Tinley Park, this week released the program for the two-day show by the 4-H boys and girls.

The program has been worked out in association with the various 4-H groups in south Cook and in northeast Will county with business men.

While the 4-H exhibitors will be exclusively of the South Cook groups, it is expected that a number of northeast Will county business men will participate in advertising their merchandise. A great many tickets, it is understood, have been bought in northeast Will which is closely interrelated with the Tinley and Orland areas of Cook.

Entertainment has been planned, and will include radio stars.

One of the interesting items, it was stated, will be a cow guessing contest. There will be, also, and more interesting to the feminine contingent, a 4-H style show, and the advance announcement says the style show will rank along with the very best.

The Home Bureau clubs' exhibits will be in the Saenger ballroom and the boys' exhibits will naturally be outdoors, since finery and cattle mixing, it was said by one of the 4-H girls, "simply is not done."

The program as issued is as follows:

Tuesday, August 26

11 a. m.—Judging 4-H calves, hogs, vegetables. G. Tupper Swan, judge. Reasons for placings will be given.

12 Noon—Picnic lunch in grove (Hamburger stand will be on grounds).

3:30 p. m.—Tractor maintenance demonstration by 4-H club members.

4 p. m.—4-H ball game.
7:30 p. m.—At Band stand in park—

Folk dance by South Cook Rural Youth; cow boy songs by Jack Birmingham; radio entertainers; old-fashioned revue, by Gay Nineties Girls; Barber Shop Quartet, and others.

Wednesday, August 27

10:30 a. m.—Championship ball game, North vs. South Cook County 4-H teams.

12:00—Picnic lunch.

1 p. m.—Games for children, 6 to 12.

2 p. m.—The parade of champions of festival. The 4-H agricultural winners pass in review: the 4-H style show; radio entertainers; winner in cow guessing contest.

9 p. m.—Dance and farmers' ball with amateur acts.

The South Cook 4-H fair will strike a high note in that larger-than-usual prizes have been planned. This, it was stated, has struck a happy note in the camps of the 4-Hrs, since they feel that exhibiting will be worth while for the winners. "We exhibit because we like to do it," one 4-H boy is quoted as saying, "but it costs our dads money when we exhibit and we appreciate our parents putting up money enough to make the prizes for winners good.

Business men all over South Cook have participated in the plans for the fair, and northeast Will county business men, it was said, gladly joined in helping to make the coming fair and exhibits a success.

The committees in charge decided upon a nominal fee of 25 cents for tickets of admission to the fair for two days, averaging only 12½ cents a day for those attending both days.

The dance in the evening of August 27, it was stated, is not covered by the 25-cent two-day admission ticket.

Made in famous McKesson Laboratories, 113 years of pharmaceutical know-how RUN OF THE MINE . . . John L. Lewis glances up dourly as he finishes signing new wage contract for his United Mine Workers with the mine operators. The miners returned to work after a brief strike.

POETIC JUSTICE . . . John B. Kelly Jr., of Philadelphia, whose father was barred from diamond sculls rowing classic in 1920 because he had done menial labor, saved family honor by winning the meet this year at Henley-on-the-Thames, England.

CALLS THE TUNE . . . James Caesar Petrillo, boss of the musicians' union, has issued an edict that he will prohibit broadcast of musical programs on network hook-ups after February 1, 1948.

HATES TAXES . . . So violently opposed to "excessive and confiscatory individual income taxes" is E. B. Tilton of Milwaukee, Wis., that he voluntarily cut his own income to lower his taxes. President of a manufacturing company, he says he will work without pay in November and December so that he may lower his tax contribution.

YOUNGEST RADIO STAR . . . Self-styled "youngest story-teller in the whole world," Robin Morgan, five years old, has her own radio program over a New York station. She is the nursery set's own disc jockey.

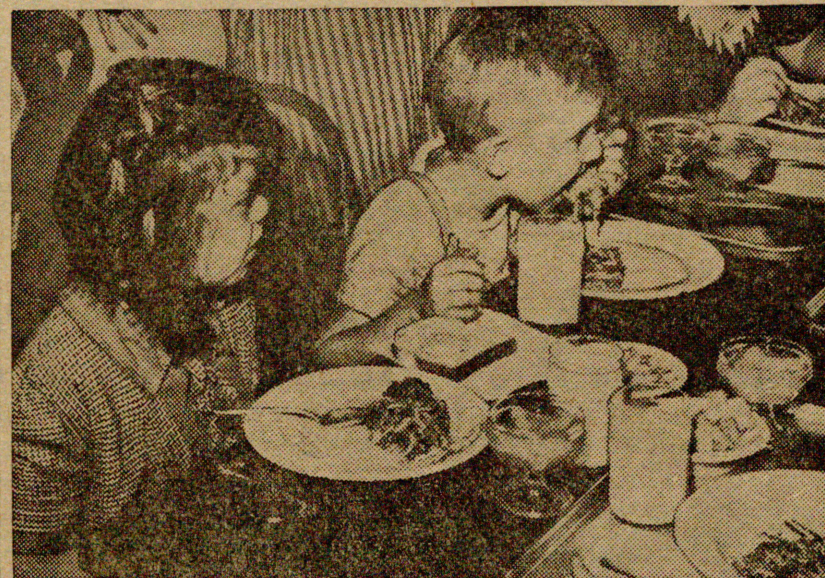

PILGRIMAGE TO LOURDES SHRINE . . . Members of a party headed by Rev. Father James R. Cox of Pittsburgh, Pa., are shown just before they boarded an airliner which carried them across the Atlantic on a pilgrimage to Our Lady of Lourdes shrine at St. Agnes, France. Included in group is 12-year-old Sally Ann O'Leary, crippled since birth, who hopes that the miraculous powers claimed for the shrine will heal her. Since the end of the war, thousands of persons have made the pilgrimage to the Lourdes shrine in search of health and out of devotion to their faith. Pittsburgh business and professional men compose this party.

'KNOW-HOW' HELPS DEFEAT FLOOD MENACE . . . With the Mississippi off on one of its most destructive benders in a century, farmers up and down the river were hard put to keep the rampaging waters from flooding their fields. At Wapello, Ia., this crew of flood fighters rigged up a portable grain elevator to carry sandbags up to levee in background for speedier reinforcement and to eliminate necessity of workers' hauling heavy bags up the slippery 12-foot embankment.

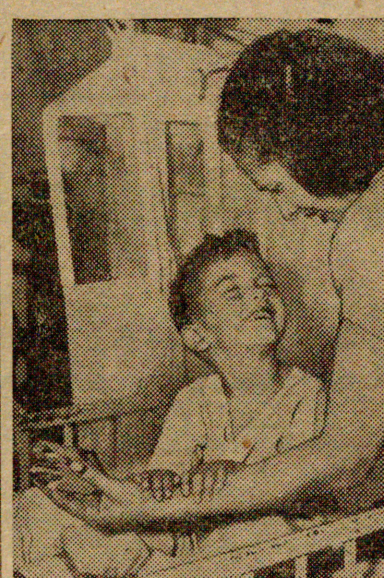

HERE'S ONE ELEPHANT WHO FORGOT . . . Saucy, a London pachyderm, and her master, Ivor Rosaire, used to do this "bite his head off" trick five years ago before Rosaire went into the army. But five years was too long for Saucy to remember the routine. When they tried the trick recently, Rosaire, dangling by his ears, had to do a great deal of shouting between the elephant's teeth before she remembered to let go.

HUNGRY WORK, THIS BEING A REFUGEE . . . Red Cross officials claim that 34,812 persons were left homeless in the four mid-western states which were ravaged by flood waters. And all 34,812 of them were hungry. In this photo, a boy-sized flood refugee takes a man-sized bite at the Red Cross shelter in Belleville, Ill., while his dining companion looks on with some astonishment. The floods were among the most destructive in the past century.

HEALTHY, HE SAYS . . . Ten-year-old Kenneth Dunn of Manhattan tosses out his chest for Dr. Gerard Moench who examines him before he goes to police athletic league camp in the Adirondacks.

HARD TO STOP . . . Gerald Green Jr., 3, shown here with mother, Mrs. Zora Green, was pronounced dead by doctor after he had swallowed some crayons, then responded to treatment.

Eddie Martin escaped!

The prison siren screamed—guards fine-combed the surrounding country—every law agency in the nation went into action.

Get Eddie Martin!

Meanwhile the notorious criminal was riding under the belly of the construction dump truck that had taken him through the prison east gate.

By his fingers and toes he clung to the bottom of the bumping truck until the driver had parked it for the night in the company yard. Only after dark did he venture from his cramped position.

He wormed his way into the truckmen's locker room, and speedily changed his prison clothes for a work outfit. He pulled the cap down over his eyes, wrapped his fist around a heavy iron bar, and was ready to travel.

Via alleys and side streets he reached the city limits. He avoided the highway and headed across the hills. At midnight he reached a creek, and waded across. They'd never get him now. He almost ran the remaining mile to the deserted shack that would give him needed refuge.

As he hurried, he remembered the many times it had given him refuge. When he was a youngster, and his folks lived on the ranch, he and his older brother, Dan, played "cops and robbers." Even at that time he had insisted on being the robber. Dan was satisfied to be a cop. For a long time he had used the shed at the far end of the ranch as his make-believe hide-out; and Dan could not find him. Then one day Dan found his hiding-place, and the fun was over.

But that had happened when he was ten years old and only playing bad man. Now he was the real thing. The government paid five thousand dollars reward for him after his last bank job. It would double that amount to get him back.

He felt quite proud—he had gone far since he was a "play-robber."

A short distance from the shed he stopped and listened. Nobody was going to outsmart him. Satisfied that he was alone, he moved to the shack.

The door was locked, the windows boarded just as he left them. With his iron bar he forced the creaky door on its squeaky hinges. Field mice scurried outside, birds flew frantically from the eaves. He bolted the door, and crossed to the rear of the room. On his knees he impatiently brushed aside the cobwebs, and pried loose several floor boards. He reached down, grasped the chain handle of a small trunk, and pulled it to the floor.

First he took out a flashlight, and directed the glare over the other contents of the chest. He laughed loudly, triumphantly. Everything was ship-shape—just as he had planted it three months ago. There was the box with the ten thousand dollars. Here was his gun, wrapped in felt. There were cartridges and stuff to clean the revolver in case it got rusty. And he had a complete change of clothes.

He could not miss! He had brains. That's why, when he got twenty-five thousand bucks from the last stick-up, he had only tried to get away with fifteen—he put the balance in the trunk with the gat and other gear. He had cached them just in case his plans went wrong, and he failed to get out of the country. Well, they did go wrong. He had trusted a guy, and gave him five grand to help his getaway. The "pal" had not only taken his money but squealed on him, and got the reward, too. But now he was in the same spot with the same amount of dough, only this time he could not fail, because he trusted nobody.

Alone in the dark, he got to thinking—and whenever it was dark, and he was alone, he thought of his mother. He liked Mom, not because of what she was to him, but because of the many favors she had done for him. He remembered how she used to battle the neighborhood hoodlums to save him from a beating. She was always looking out for his good.

Yes, sir, Mom was all right.

He stretched out, and fell into a peaceful sleep. Two hours later, he awoke, frightened! He shook with fear as he grabbed his gun.

A voice called hurriedly, "Eddie, Eddie!"

It was his brother. He did not answer. Dan called again, "Eddie, I must see you!"

Eddie let him in, then slammed the door and bolted it. He jabbed the revolver into his brother's ribs. "You're still playing cops and robbers. But you'll never live to collect my reward."

Dan regarded him coldly. "Mom wants to see you."

The savage tenseness faded from Eddie's face. "No kidding? After all that bunk they printed about me?"

"She doesn't know anything about you," answered Dan. "She hasn't been able to read for six years. I made up stories, instead of reading what was there."

"Thanks, Dan, I sure wish I could see her—but it's impossible right now."

"She's very sick."

"No!"

"It's your last chance to see her alive."

"I'll go."

He changed quickly into his good clothes. He stuffed the gun and cartridges into his pockets, and carried the money container under his arm. At the door he stopped.

"Listen, Dan, even though we're brothers, we never had any love for each other. If this is your trick to turn me in, I'll get you if it's the last thing I do."

Dan shook his head in sympathy. "Don't you trust anybody?"

"Only me—and Mom. Let's go."

In Dan's car they raced for home. Midway they ran into a heavy storm. Rain flooded the windshield faster than the wiper could clear it. Thunder boomed and lightning lit the countryside.

The storm was at its height when they stopped in front of a little white cottage. Dan jumped out of the car and ran to the house. Eddie followed. A flash of lightning, and Eddie turned to see a police car skidding to the curb.

Eddie pushed Dan inside and threw the door shut. He whipped out his gun, and leveled it at his brother.

"I told you I'd get you!"

"But, Eddie," frantically pleaded Dan, "I didn't—"

A crash of thunder drowned out the revolver shots. Dan fell dead. The officers were right outside. Eddie was a caged rat. He yanked open a door. His mother was lying in bed.

"Edward—Edward!" she called weakly.

He glanced at the window—it was blocked by police. He had no chance to escape. He held the gun behind him.

"Hello, Mom," he said.

"I'm so glad you're here," she told him. "Are you all right?"

"Sure, Mom, I'm swell."

She sighed in relief.

"I've had a dreadful feeling you were in danger," she said, "I even telephoned the police to protect you!"

Fire Waste Doubled

Since 1941, national waste by fire has nearly doubled. In that year the figure was a little more than 300 million dollars. Last year it was more than 616 million dollars. That difference between the two years is nearly as much as the entire loss in the great conflagration of San Francisco in 1906. At the present rate of increase direct waste by fire will run well over the staggering sum of one billion dollars by 1950.

Wisdom and Understanding For Our Daily Living

LESSON TEXT FOR JULY 27—Proverbs 1:1-5; 3:13-18; 9:9, 10; James 1:5.

MEMORY SELECTION—Wisdom is the principal thing; therefore get wisdom; and with all thy getting get understanding.—Proverbs 4:7.

EDITOR'S NOTE: Lesson subjects and Scripture texts selected and copyrighted by International Council of Religious Education; used by permission.

By HAROLD L. LUNDQUIST, D. D., Of The Moody Bible Institute, Chicago.

EDUCATION is so widespread in our day, and so eagerly sought after, that one might assume that the world would soon solve its problems through the cultural attainments of its people.

Why this is not true appears clearly in our lesson; for it is wisdom that the world needs, and wisdom is quite different from the understanding or memorizing of a mass of facts.

Wisdom teaches us how to use knowledge effectively for the glory of God. We see in our lesson:

I. The Meaning of Wisdom (Prov. 1:1-5).

PROVERBS are pithy, useful sayings, which gather up the wisdom of a people in easily remembered form. They are highly thought of in all nations, but reached their highest development among the Hebrews, because they rightly insisted that they must be related to God and worship of him.

We learn in this passage that they are given to us that we may "know" that we have both wisdom and instruction. The growth of knowledge is always a prerequisite to growth in grace—learn more about God and his precious Word, and you will have more of his grace upon you.

Knowledge must be coupled with discernment (v. 2), which speaks of going beyond and below the surface meaning. This will not be an abstract love of the scholarly, but a practical application of truth to life (v. 3). Wisdom results in right living and proper dealing with our neighbors.

The one who has come to this place is ready to give (v. 4) help to others, especially to the young or those of "simple" thinking, who have not yet reached the place where they can get hold of such things for themselves.

Notice that the wise man does not stop at that point, but because he is wise he goes on to more and more understandings, to further receiving and giving out of "sound counsels" (v. 5).

Observe next,

II. The Value of Wisdom (Prov. 3:13-18).

THE character of a man shows up in the things he holds to be valuable. Some cannot see beyond gold and silver. Others seek comfort and convenience, and do not wish to be disturbed in their easy ways.

The wise man knows that for real pleasure of the highest type, for peace of mind and heart, for riches that will last and not bring him into either sin or sorrow, there is nothing like the cultivation of understanding and wisdom.

This scripture affords us the opportunity to say a needed word to young people who are being so sorely tempted these days to forego their opportunities for an education, and to rush out into the world to make money, more money, yes, the most possible money.

Education seems to be unnecessary, a waste of time and effort. But wait, the years will come and go, and then when it is too late, the realization will come that a golden opportunity was missed, and that doors of usefulness and effectiveness are now closed.

It pays to give time to the cultivation of the mind and of the heart in preparation for life. We are not thinking primarily of the dollars and cents value now, for that is secondary, even though it may be important.

III. The Source of Wisdom (Prov. 9:9, 10; James 1:5).

GOD is the source of wisdom, and it is as a man fears him that he becomes wise. The fear of God is not a matter of fright or terror, but rather a genuine concern that one may do his will and never fail to be obedient to his guidance.

God is always more ready to give than we are to receive. He will not turn us aside, or belittle our efforts; but will, if we ask, give wisdom, and that in no little measure.

Let no man think that he can attain unto true wisdom apart from a right relationship to God. He may have knowledge, but not wisdom. On the other hand, let no man who knows God and serves him go through life lacking wisdom when all he has to do is to ask it of his heavenly Father. Why be poverty-stricken when you can be rich in wisdom and understanding?

A Lot of Water

The tropical Amazon basin is nearly as large as the United States. Rain totals as much as 200 inches a year in the Amazon jungles. The river, 4,000 miles long, is the world's greatest in volume of the water it carries. It has 1,100 tributaries. The largest ocean steamers can travel 1,000 miles up the Amazon during the period of low water.

Compulsory Pasteurization

First compulsory pasteurization law was enacted in 1903 in Chicago. All milk for our armed forces and 88 per cent of the fluid milk supply in U. S. cities of over 10,000 is pasteurized. The U. S. Public Health service says: "The public health value of pasteurization is unanimously agreed upon by health officials."

Crackling in Radio

Inside radios is a large tuning condenser, which has movable plates controlled by the tuning knob. Crackling noise probably is caused by a bit of dirt connecting the plates. A pipe cleaner run between the plates may stop the crackling noise.

History of Glass

The secret of making colorless, or "flint," glass was discovered in England. In the 16th century, however, Venetians discovered the formula for absolutely colorless and transparent glass and were able to blow it to extreme thinness.

Those Missouri Fish

Crappie accounted for nearly a quarter of all fish caught in Missouri last year, leading all other species. The sneered-at carp ranked third, just behind green sunfish.

Discovered Easter Island

Easter island was discovered April 6, 1772, by the Dutch Admiral Jacob Roggenwein, who thus named the isle because the event took place on Easter Sunday.

Sews Toughest Fabrics

Needles with a point tip of carbonyl cemented carbide, made from tungsten and lampblack have been produced for sewing the toughest of fabrics.

Indian Asthma Remedy

For an asthma remedy, American Indians boiled alder oil, covered the head with a blanket and inhaled the fumes.

Operating Railways

There are 44 railway companies in the United States which operate more than 1,000 miles of railroad each.

Incandescent Lamp Heat

The filament of a 60-watt incandescent lamp runs a temperature of 4,314 degrees, 10 times the heat in an oven necessary to brown a pie.

Perverse Fellow

Thomas Gainsborough painted his famous "Blue Boy" to disprove a statement that blue should not be massed in a painting.

Electric Invalid Car

A new development is an electric invalid car, the batteries of which can be recharged overnight by plugging into a house circuit.

Start of Forest Fires

It has been estimated that 85 per cent of forest fires are set deliberately and that tourists start the other 15 per cent.

Tree Sap May Freeze

Foresters say that freezing may cause a tree to crack, sometimes with a loud sound, but not to explode, as is still widely believed. Sap in a tree may freeze and expand so that it cracks the wood, just as milk may freeze and break the bottle.

Big River of Milk

Enough milk is produced annually in the United States to fill a river 3,000 miles long, 40 feet wide and 3 feet deep. If all the milk produced in the U. S. in one year had been put in quart bottles side by side, they would extend almost 150 times around the world.

Fire-Resistant Tree

Because it is exceedingly fire-resistant, the jarrah tree of western Australia has been used in place of brick or stone in chimneys and fireplaces. It also is used under conditions where steel would buckle because of heat.

Chile Cost to Spain

The conquest of Chile cost Spain more in men and money than did all the rest of Spanish America. The reason: The courage, generalship and spirit of the native Araucanian Indians.

Soybeans as Emulsifier

Lecithin is being made from soybean oil. It is widely used by bakers, candy manufacturers, shortening and margarine manufacturers, as an emulsifier and improver of texture.

Tall Grass Mowing

Tall tough grass yields to mowing with a power mower having an arrangement of whirling blades on a vertical axis instead of the familiar horizontal-roller type.

Real Bird Contortionist

The grebe is a bird contortionist. It lifts its legs out of the water, shakes the moisture from them, then folds them over the back, under its wings.

Found of Knowledge

Sight provides more information to our minds about the outside world than do the four other senses of the body combined, according to Better Vision institute.

Degrees of Latitude

Chile is the least compact of South American countries. It runs through more degrees of latitude than any other inhabited country in the world.

King Bred Horses

King John of England encouraged horse breeding in 1199 by importing Flemish stallions, the origin of the English draft horse.

Use Old Hulls

Old submarine hulls, sawed in half and then stood on end, are being utilized for oil storage tanks in Germany.

Peak in Arizona

The highest point in Arizona is Humphreys peak, an extinct volcano in the San Francisco mountains rising to 12,611 feet.

Matches for Everyone

One million match books are handed out to customers every hour—a grand total of nine billion books a year.

Farmers Use Steam

Instead of soap and water, modern poultrymen are using steam under pressure to clean brooders, incubators and other equipment.

COMMUNITY CHURCH

For Wheat Farmers

In an announcement made today by Byron Gaskill, chairman of the Will county AAA committee, it was stated that a new program is now offered to wheat farmers who have 1947 wheat in storage, assuring them of price support under the Department of Agriculture's price support program. It is known as the purchase agreement plan and is expected to simplify the program and reduce administrative costs. It is applicable to either warehouse or farm-stored wheat.

Under this plan, farmers will be able to sell their wheat at a price not less than that corresponding to loan delivery rates. Eligible producers may avail themselves of this plan by making application to the local AAA office. The usual wheat loan is also available through the local county agricultural conservation office.

Applications for purchase agreements and loans on wheat must be made not later than December 31, 1944.

WANTS HOMES

We have cash buyers waiting for anyone wishing to sell property. Kindly phone our office for one of our special agents to call. We have sold millions of dollars worth of property on the South and Southwest sides. I specialize in suburban homes. I don't fool around, the minute your home is listed with me for sale I get ready to advertise in the Chicago Newspapers and seven salesmen start to work on it. They start calling on clients who have been out to my office and told us just what they would be interested in I send a copy of the paper to each owner where my advertisement appears. In this way you are sure your property has been advertised. A great many times the property is sold before we have a chance to advertise. When a deal is pending we hold off our advertisement a few days as each salesman has many cash buyers to get in touch with immediately. I demand action from my Salesmen and if the house is not sold within a reasonable time it is advertised again and the Salesmen are instructed to double their efforts. If you price your property at a fair price and give it to me for sale I can assure you that you will get quick action.

'FIRST AMERICANS'

Park Ruins Unfold Fascinating Story of Prehistoric Indians

WNU Features.

More than one hundred centuries ago the first immigrants set foot on the shores of North America. These early people, archeologists believe, crossed the narrow strait which divides Asia from Alaska, and from Bering sea they traveled eastward and southward. From time to time in the centuries which followed new bands of people crossed from Asia and the earlier settlers were compelled to push onward to more remote sections of the continent. It is possible that some of these people migrated down along the Pacific coastline, but the greater mass of them, it is thought, crossed the mountains and continued the southward trek along the east side of the Rockies.

Long before the time of Columbus, the copper-colored inhabitants of the Western hemisphere, whom we call "Indians," had fanned out and occupied all of North America, Mexico, Central America, South America and the islands of the West Indies.

Under the administration of National Park service are many areas connected with the life of the ancient Indians.

National Parks
Twelfth

protect significant ruins in the states of Utah, Colorado, Arizona and New Mexico. There are also Mound City group national monument in Ohio, Ocmulgee national monument in Georgia and Old Kasaan national monument in Alaska. In addition, many other national parks and monuments, created primarily as scenic or scientific reserves, also contain evidence of Indian occupation.

Unfortunately, the Indians, during the long pre-Columbian period had no written history, but the records of their wanderings and the story of their cultural and political progress gradually are being put together by archeologists from the tangible remains—the campfires, the dustheaps, and the ruins these people left behind. The story as it unfolds is fascinating, the record of achievement is impressive.

Originally nomadic hunters, the first Americans, learned to cultivate the soil. To Indian farmers we owe such staples in our diet as corn, Irish potatoes, yams and cocoa. The Indians also developed tobacco and taught us the use of quinine. They learned to make pottery, woven textiles and delicate jewelry from gold and silver. They built fortresses, temples and cities, and in Central America Mayan mathematicians invented the use of "zero" before it was known to scholars of Europe and Asia.

EARLIEST EVIDENCE of man in the New World was discovered a few years ago at a site near Folsom, N. M. Here peculiar grooved stone spear points were discovered in association with the fossil bones of animals which have been extinct for thousands of years. The skeletons of the men who used these weapons have not yet been found, but similar grooved points have been discovered in many places as far east as Virginia. This earliest American has been given the name of "Folsom Man" and he lived at a time when mastodons and saber toothed tigers roamed the forests and plains of the United States.

After the "Folsom Man" there is a long gap in our knowledge of ancient Americans, but in Central America the Mayas, who had invented a reliable calendar, were carving dates on stone monuments as early as 600 years before the beginning of the Christian Era.

IN MESA VERDE National park and in the southwestern national monuments one may obtain a fairly clear picture of the life of the Indians through a period extending back nearly two thousand years. Here, although the Indians had no calendar and carved no dates on monuments, it has been possible to assign fairly exact dates to events which transpired long before the coming of the white man. For example, it is known that from 1276 A. D. to 1299 A. D. there was a continuous drought for 24 consecutive years, and it also is known that about the year 900 A. D., Sunset Crater, a volcano near Flagstaff, CONTRAST . . . Prehistoric Indian ruins built at the base of sheer red cliffs or in caves in canyon walls share the limelight with modern Navajo homes and farms in Canyon de Chelly national monument in Arizona. White House ruins are shown in this picture.

Ariz., erupted and covered the countryside with lava and ashes.

The system of dating Indian ruins in the Southwest is simple and ingenious and is done by using a tree ring calendar.

By starting with living trees and patiently matching pieces of wood from older and older houses, the annular ring patterns in the Southwest have been established for a period of more than a thousand years.

ONE OF THE MOST impressive ruined towns of the ancient Indians is Pueblo Bonito in Chaco Canyon national monument, New Mexico. This town, built like a huge five-story apartment house, contained in the 11th century more than 800 rooms and housed at least 1,200 people. A part of the pueblo was constructed as early as 919 A. D. Other ruined pueblos, which the visitor will find fascinating, are those built in niches in the vertical cliffs of Canyon de Chelly and Canyon del Muerto in Canyon de Chelly national monument in northwestern Arizona. The beauty of these wild canyons will live long in the memory of all who see them. Near Flagstaff, Ariz., are the stone pueblo of Wupatki and the cliff dwellings in Walnut canyon. In central Arizona are Tonto, Tuzigoot and Montezuma Castle national monuments, and in the northern part of the state near the Utah border is Navajo national monument. Aztec ruins and Bendel national monuments are in New Mexico.

IN THE OHIO valley and in southeastern United States the Indians frequently built large earth mounds. Very often these mounds were constructed in the form of truncated pyramids and were used as platforms for temple structures or houses. One of these mound sites has been established as a national monument near Chillicothe, Ohio. At this site, known as Mound City group national monument are a large number of mounds. At Mound City, Ocmulgee national monument also contains a number of interesting mounds, one of which was constructed over a subterranean council chamber.

FOR INFORMATION relating to the national monuments, write to the Director, National Park Service, Department of the Interior, Washington 25, D. C.

Can We Afford to Save Europe?

RESPONSIBLE policy making officials of our state department tell us it will take no less than 26 billion of our dollars to get the world operating again as a going concern. No government department ever underestimates costs, and that 26 billion will be more rather than less. It may be America's job, but can we do it without serious danger to our own economy? Can the people of the world afford a break in our economic standards that today represent world hopes for the future?

If America must provide food, clothing and other commodities to reequip a world broken by the war, to the extent of a value of 26 billion dollars, what will this drain do to America?

The commodities such a program calls for must be produced by Americans in America. These are commodities for which our own people are now clamoring. With plenty of money around but few goods on store shelves, a condition develops that can easily become that threatened inflation. It would mean all going out, but little or nothing coming in to help maintain our American standards.

Without our help at rehabilitation, both Europe and Asia may, and probably will, go communistic. The civilization and ideologies Europe has known may be replaced by the Russian type. If we suffer uncontrolled inflation in this country, with a reduction in living standards, we probably will travel the same road.

Before undertaking such a job it would be well for us to carefully consider the future for our own benefit and the benefit of those seeking our help. That consideration should be a job, not for amateurs, but for the best qualified economists in the country.

We Will Give 5 Billions Away.

Through various channels we now are committed to an expenditure of more than five billions during the next year. That is not five billions in paper dollars. It is five billions to be paid in food and manufactured products, in exchange for which we will get no compensating products through which to maintain our standards; no products for Americans to buy with the dollars they are being paid as wages, dividends or profits.

The products we send to other nations do not decrease in value, but the American dollars paid to American workers for producing those products will decrease in purchasing power when we do not have enough commodities to absorb them at present values.

The American people will go the limit of the nation's ability to save Europe and Asia from the threat of the Russian communistic Bear, but the worst catastrophe that could happen to the suffering nations of the world would be to have America fall a victim to that same Bear. It would mean an end to the kind of civilization we have known.

Now is the time to find out how far we can safely go, and it takes wise heads to answer such a problem.

Pattern for Politicians

IT IS my belief that the man the majority of the American people would wish to choose for White House occupancy, beginning in January of 1949, would represent neither the ultra, stand-pat conservatism of the Republican Harding administration, or the New Deal revolutionary efforts of the Franklin Roosevelt Democratic era. They would wish a man who knows the difference between revolution and evolution, who would not have us stand still, nor run off on a revolutionary tangent. They want a man who believes in advancement in keeping with changing conditions, but not in change merely for the sake of change. They want a man who will think more of effective government, and the people, than of politics; who will not cater to any minority for the purpose of winning votes, or other reasons. The people will not be choosy as to what label the candidate may run under, but they will be choosy as to the qualifications of the candidate, and what he stands for.

NOW we propose to spend a million or two for writing a history of the Nuernberg trials of dead Nazis. A million dollars should produce a lot of words, and who will read them?

Despite all evidence to the contrary, it is evident many politicians have not yet learned the labor vote is not controlled by a limited number of vociferous mobsters who can make a lot of noise, but deliver few votes.

There is no virtue in giving that which we do not want.

President Truman's vetoes of the tax and labor bills established the political issues for the 1948 elections.

Human Thing to Do

Seeking to teach a beady-eyed chimpanzee to play tennis, a great psychiatrist took the animal to a squash court, where for 20 minutes he banged the ball against the walls of the court, running madly to retrieve it, tripping a couple of times, and once bashing his forehead with the racket.

The chimp watched without moving. Finally the exhausted psychiatrist put the racket and ball within easy reach of the animal, left the court, and closed the door behind him. Then he knelt and peered through the keyhole to watch developments.

Glued to the other side of the keyhole was a beady little brown eye.

TESTS show that Champion Farmer Renk's Firestone Champion Ground Grips will clean up to 100% more effectively, pull up to 62% more, last up to 91% longer, and roll smoother over highways than any other tractor tires.

Only Firestone Champion Ground Grips are made with connected curved traction bars. The curves . . . and the connections . . . give the bars far greater strength than those on any other tractor tires. They eliminate the excessive bending and wiping and rapid tread wear of broken center tires. The curved bars cut into the soil with a sharp, plowlike action. Mud and trash fall freely from tapered openings between these powerful traction bars. The continuous contact of the connected curved bars with the highway insures a smoother ride.

Like Champion Farmer Renk . . . and other cost-conscious farmers . . . you will get more pulling power and longer life if you specify Firestone Champion Ground Grips for your new tractor . . . or buy Champions for your present tractors.

A FARM CORPORATION, one of the first, has enabled Champion Farmer William F. Renk, Sun Prairie, Wisconsin, and three sons, Walter, Wilbur and Robert, to build an efficient and profitable farm business. Last year, on 1053 acres in 7 farms, they produced more than 3 million pounds of grain and livestock . . . more than enough to load a freight train a mile long. Purebred Hampshire and Shropshire sheep earn top awards . . . bring highest prices. Their hybrid seed corn and certified seed grains are in demand. Soil fertility, through fertilization and an efficient cattle and hog plan, is high. Last year 50 acres of Forvic oats yielded 102 bushels per acre. Farm work is mechanized to the limit. Cream won't drip from the pitcher if you put a bit of unflavored fat on the tip of the spout.

Wear an apron when you sew. Have large pockets in the apron for holding thimble, scissors and tape measure.

Dry rot seldom attacks timber when the air can circulate freely under the boards. It is important therefore to have good ventilation throughout the home.

Wash cloths last much longer and the edges will not fray if they are turned back and stitched on the sewing machine when new.

PMA Calls Certificates

Seven years ago Pure Milk adopted a revolving fund plan which gave association members an opportunity to invest in their own co-operative organization. At that time producer-investors were told that their investments would be repaid at the end of seven years.

W. E. Winn, treasure of Pure Milk association, Chicago, has issued a call for the redemption of the 1940 plant fund certificates at their full face values. Members holding 1940 certificates of investment should send them to the central office at 608 South Dearborn street, Chicago 5. A check for the full amount will be sent to certificate holders, it was stated.

Later in the year checks will be issued to members for their share of savings in the general fund for 1940. Mr. Winn says that the net worth of PMA on May 31 was $1,911,156.13 and that this amount will be refunded to members by the seven-year revolving fund plan.

BREMEN HOME BUREAU

Bremen unit of Home Bureau met at the home of Mrs. Leslie Johnson last Monday. The ladies had their annual picnic in the morning and games were played by young and old. At noon a delicious potluck luncheon was served. In the afternoon the regular meeting was held with Mrs. W. Guth presiding in the absence of the chairman, Mrs. George Lambert. Mrs. E. C. Grunest gave the major lesson, "Health before and after 40." The ladies are making plans for the booth they will sponsor at the 4-H fair to be held in Tinley in August. A beautiful handmade quilt is to be supplied to secure money to help defray expenses of the local 4-H clubs and their leaders.

Tinley Park Garden Club News

The Tinley Park Garden club held its July meeting at the home of Mrs. Florence Anderson, Thursday, July 17. Lunch was served at 12:30 and three lovely tables set on the lawn in the Andersons' beautiful yard.

After lunch the president, Mrs. Moss, called the meeting to order. After roll call, Mrs. Agnes O'Neill introduced the guests who were to present the program for the day. Mrs. H. T. Knight, general chairman of the Plant, Fruit, and Flower guild of the State of Illinois was introduced and gave a very interesting and inspirational talk on what the various garden clubs throughout the state are doing at the many institutions and hospitals in the state. Mrs. Knight complimented our local chairman, Mrs. O'Neill, for her splendid record.

Mrs. Knight in turn introduced the second guest, Mrs. R. E. Fedou, division chairman, who displayed an interesting collection of articles made by various Garden club groups. These two guests having to leave early, they bid the Tinley Park Garden club members good-bye, after which Mrs. Moss again called the meeting to order and welcomed a third guest, Mrs. Wyman, who is visiting here from Texas. Her friends were happy to see her and have the opportunity of visiting with her.

Mrs. O'Neill reported on the party given for the ward of old ladies at Oak Forest on Friday, July 11. The patients, as usual, enjoyed the treat Mrs. O'Neill and her committee brought for them. They appreciate these parties.

The "Happy Birthday" song was sung for Mrs. Werth and Mrs. Duff, who have birthdays in July.

This being the annual meeting of the Garden club, the next business to come before the meeting was election of officers. The new officers for the coming year are: Mrs. Florence Anderson, president; Mrs. Edith Baldwin, vice-president; Mrs. Agnes English, secretary; Mrs. Jennie Klepper, treasurer. After the election of officers Mrs. Moss turned the gavel over to Mrs. Anderson and at this time was presented with a gift for her two years' service as president.

The award for the day was won by Mrs. Emily Funk.

There will be no meeting of the Garden club in August. The September meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Catherine Fulton, Thursday, September 18.—Edna Clark, publicity chairman.

Redeemer Picnic

Sunday morning, July 27, Redeemer's Lutheran church of Oak Forest will hold its annual picnic at the Tinley Creek woods, 143rd and Harlem avenue. The Sunday school bus will make its route and will take the children out to the woods where Sunday school and church services will be held. School will start at 10 a. m. The bus will leave on 167th street, about 9:25 a. m. and come down Cicero avenue. If you wish a ride stand at any crossing and the

PICK YOUR CORN EARLY!

Dry It In Crib, with Behlen All-Steel Ventilators and Tunnels

New, modern, fast way to dry corn. No more waiting for corn to dry in fields. Pick early, when mechanical pickers work best. Crib it, and let Behlen Ventilators and Tunnels dry corn faster than you ever dreamed possible.

GOODBYE TO CORN BORERS!

Agricultural colleges and experimental stations recommend picking early, to help control corn borers. You get your corn into cribs to dry, and shred or chop stalks and plow under before ground freezes, to kill the borers.

Behlen Tunnels not only ventilate, but are very handy for shelling. Just run sheller "drag" into tunnel, as at left. Pull out tunnel sections one by one. Corn drops onto conveyor belt. Saves hours of labor!

COME IN NOW!

Don't wait. We have Behlen All-Steel Ventilators and Corn Tunnels on hand now. But due to present industrial situation, we cannot promise we will get any more this fall. We strongly urge you to come in right away, while we are still able to supply you. Cost is less than for old-style wood ventilators.

If lamp and appliance cords in your home are badly worn and beyond repair, replace them before they cause trouble. Serious damage can result from exposed wires. They cause short circuits, waste electricity, blow fuses.

During the war, all of us had to get along with makeshift wiring of inferior quality.

Today there is no reason why every home shouldn't have wiring that's both safe and adequate.

You owe it to your family to check through your home for worn-out electric cords today. Replace every frayed cord with a new one of good quality. Then, lengthen the life of these wires by handling only the plug when disconnecting a cord from the wall socket—never yank an electric cord!

REAL ESTATE ASSESSMENT ROLL FOR YEAR 1947

TOWNSHIP OF NEW LENOX

The following is a list of real estate and personal property together with the amounts of the assessments as made by the township assessors of New Lenox township and as returned to and completed by Charles Lauth, supervisor of assessments.

The assessed values herein shown are subject to revision by the Board of Review and to equalization by the Department of Revenue. Section 146 of the Revenue Act, 1939, provides that the Department shall lower or raise the total assessed value of property in any county so that such property will be assessed at its full, fair cash value.

This publication (made in accordance with Section 103 of the Revenue Act, 1939) serves as a public notice to the taxpayers of the county of the assessed values fixed upon their property by the township assessors, or supervisor of assessments.

Taxpayers who consider their property incorrectly assessed may appear before the Board of Review on or before August 5th or 10th and file a complaint in writing according to Section 108 of the Revenue Act of 1939.

The assessed values shown are subject to revision by the Board of Review and to equalization by the State Department of Revenue. Under provisions of Section 146 of the Illinois Revenue Act of 1939 as amended in 1945, the Department of Revenue is required to determine the percentage relationship within each county of assessed value and the estimated full, fair cash value. Upon the basis of such data, the Department is required to raise or lower the total locally assessed values so that all such property will be assessed at its full, fair cash value.

These equalized values then become the base for tax extensions for 1947 taxes payable in 1948, and indicate the full, fair cash value of the properties assessed, based on the assessed value as made by the local assessing officials.

This publication, which is made in accordance with Section 103 of the Revenue Act, serves as a public notice to the taxpayers of the county of the assessed values fixed upon their property by the township assessors.

Make Soil Better 'Blotter' for Rain With Organic Matter

CHICAGO — Midwest farmers were urged to make their soils better "blotter" for rainfall by following conservation methods that will increase the supply of organic matter, improve the soil structure and reduce losses from water runoff.

"With more water to 'drink' crops can make better use of plant foods so vital to healthy growth and maturity," a statement by the Middle West Soil Improvement Committee points out. "One or two inches of rain soaked into the soil late in the growing season can make a 10- or 15-bushel increase in corn yields."

He Answered Call Of Opportunity

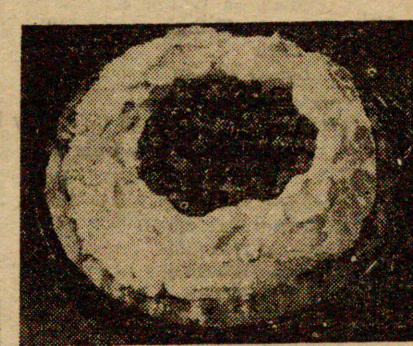

A typical story of American opportunity is the life of Earl Owen Shreve, new President of the United States Chamber of Commerce.

This big-shouldered hard-working son of Iowa climbed from the bottom to one of the top executive posts in the General Electric Co., as vice-president in charge of customer relations.

Born in Mapleton, Iowa, he had a job at the turn of the century as station agent and telegrapher at Harrisburg, S. D., with the Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul Railroad. He got so interested in his work, he went to Iowa State College at Ames to study electrical engineering. Then, with a degree in electrical engineering, he joined General Electric and started his climb.

Mr. Shreve knows what he talks about when he calls America the land of opportunity.

Cranberry Pie Solves Short Sugar Ration

What's good for the sauce is good for the pie, is especially true of cranberries, according to Marjorie Griffin, Rural Home editor of nationally-circulated Capper's Farmer. "There's a blend of orange marmalade, apple slices and cranberries in the flavorful filling," she tells home makers. "White corn syrup, one of the standby sugar savers, is used with egg whites in making the fluffy meringue."

Sugar Cranberry Pie.
2 apples
2 c. orange marmalade
3 c. fresh cranberries
1 tbs. corn starch
2 tbs. cold water
2 egg whites
3 tbs. white corn syrup
1 baked 9-inch pie shell
Peel and slice apples. Heat marmalade; add apples and cook gently for 3 to 4 minutes. Add cranberries; continue cooking until cranberry skins pop open — about 10 minutes. Blend cornstarch and water to a smooth paste; add to cranberry mixture. Cook, stirring constantly, until filling is slightly thickened and clear. Cool; pour into pie shell. Beat egg whites stiff, gradually adding corn sirup while beating. Pile meringue in ring around edge of pie. Bake in slow oven (325° F.) until golden brown — about 15 minutes.

BIG CHORAL CONCERT SET IN JOLIET FOR AUG. BY WILL CO. RURAL CHORUS

Over 70 members of the Will County Rural Chorus will demonstrate their musical ability at a concert to be held at Farragut school auditorium in Joliet Tuesday evening, August 5.

Rural folks from all communities in Will county are combining their vocal abilities to make this concert a success. Members of the chorus are meeting regularly on Monday night of each week at 8 o'clock at the First Baptist church in Joliet for a two-hour rehearsal under the direction of Arthur Enxell of Joliet; Mrs. Davis Cougar of Joliet is the accompanist.

This splendid musical project is being sponsored jointly by the Will County Farm and Home bureaus in cooperation with the extension service of the college of agriculture, University of Illinois. Included in the concert will be four required numbers, "The Lord Is My Shepherd," "The Erie Canal," "All The Things You Are," and "This Is My Country." In addition, the chorus will sing three numbers of their own selection. Mrs. Phil Goochin of Wilmington is the chairman of the chorus and Mrs. Edward Wenck of Joliet is vice-chairman.

The Will County Chorus will join with choruses from 20 other counties and sing in a combined chorus in an Illinois state rural chorus at the Illinois state fair on Saturday evening, August 9, and at the Chicagoland festival Saturday night, August 16.

NEW LENOX VILLAGE GOVERNMENT SEEKS COMMUNITY WELFARE

Men who operate village governments must make a living for themselves and their families, since, it is self-evident, no village could afford the cost of paying sufficiently large salaries to maintain its officials, and there is not work enough to keep officials busy all the time.

Necessarily these men work for their fellow citizens because of devotion to public interest. No other motive could exist to cause men to go home from jobs and then go out night after night on village government business.

The editor of The Semmler News papers—The News-Bulletin, The Orland Park Herald, The Tinley Park Times—was impressed with the serious attitude of these village officials of New Lenox. He was impressed because the men who direct the destinies of the village are, like the rest of us, busy people; yet they devote late hours at night, often, to public business.

These men, whose names have been held over in these articles by the very nature of the articles, are Village Trustees E. M. Merteld, and Public Health, Safety Director Amos Bruns, Commissioner of Public Works and Property George Marshall. Robert McCleary is village clerk and Stephen P. Sergeant is village treasurer.

Walter Baers is accounts and finance commissioner, Sheldon Hauck heads streets and roads.

The vacancy caused by the death of Leonard Rought has not been filled.

The village's chief executive is, of course, J. Carlton Cole.

Other aspects of New Lenox village government will appear in the News-Bulletin at an early date.

Adding Organic Matter to Soils Cited As 'No. 1' Problem of Midwest Farmers

Plenty of Organic Matter Plus Plant Foods Spells Big Corn Crops.

ADDING organic matter to their soils is the Number 1 problem of many Midwestern farmers, declared Dr. F. C. Bauer, professor of soil fertility of the University of Illinois. This organic matter must come through the return of manure, straw, cornstalks and other crop residues of the soil, and through the use of legumes and grasses in the rotation.

When you put organic matter back into the soil, and especially that derived from deep-rooted legumes, you are also adding nitrogen, considered by many the one element most limiting to crop yields.

Even on some of the best of soils the organic matter supply is running dangerously low. Years of intensive cropping and livestock raising, without the return of crop residues, manures and plant food nutrients, have pulled deeply on the original supply, Dr. Bauer pointed out.

For most of their organic matter

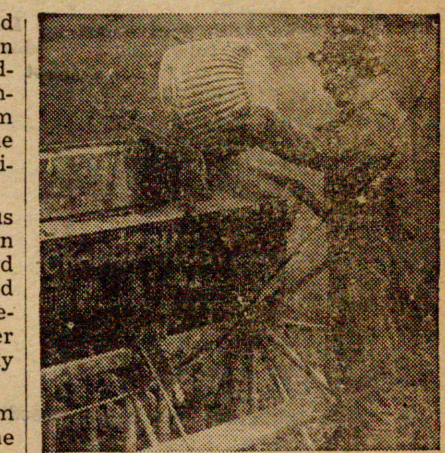

Production Cost Study Rates Plant Food As 'One of Best Buys' Farmer Can Make

CHICAGO—Fertilizer was called "one of the best buys a farmer can make" in a statement by the Middle West Soil Improvement Committee based on a study of farm production costs issued by Purdue University's Department of Agricultural Extension.

"Although prices of numerous other goods and services used in farm production have increased from 25 to 226 per cent compared with prewar levels," says the statement, "the cost of fertilizer per unit of plant nutrient has risen only 15 per cent."

The extent to which other farm cost items have jumped since the 1935-39 period is indicated by the following Purdue compilations:

Farm wage rates are now 226 per cent above prewar averages. They have increased more than any other farm production cost. Prices of seeds are up 92 per cent. The annual operating cost of a tractor is 44 per cent more than before Pearl Harbor. Farm machinery prices have increased 25 per cent. The annual operating cost of an auto or truck is 72 per cent higher. Building materials, excluding housing, have risen 50 per cent. The annual operating cost of machinery other than tractor, truck and auto, is 54 per cent more.

Present building costs for farm buildings and farmstead improvements when skilled labor is considered, are around 200 per cent above prewar levels. The cost per head of keeping horses is up 85 per cent.

From where I sit ... by Joe Marsh

"Not Responsible For Wife's Debts"

A young man came rushing into the Clarion office the other day and wanted me to print an ad—"right quick"—saying he won't be responsible for his wife's debts from now on, as he's leaving her for good immediately.

I allowed as how the forms were all closed up, and it was too late to take his ad. He says: "All right, Monday then"—and we agreed on Monday.

Of course, the forms weren't closed. But I had kind of an inkling of what might happen. Then Sunday he phones me, and says, kind of sheepishly: "You can forget that ad. Me and the missus have everything all patched up. And we're having a friendly glass of beer, right now."

From where I sit, if you give folks time enough to think things over, those hasty quarrels that come so often from misunderstanding will give way to tolerance and common sense.

Popular Flavor

Candy makers say cherry is the most popular native American flavor they use.

LAW LIMITS

The employment of children, boys and girls under 16, in about or in connection with any establishment in which intoxicating alcoholic liquors are served, or in any bowling alley, pool room, billiard room, skating rink, exhibition park or place of amusement, public messenger or delivery service, garage, filling station, service station, or as a bellboy in any hotel or rooming house, or in connection with power-driven machinery or other hazardous occupations, is now illegal under Illinois new Child Labor Law, State Director of Labor, Robert L. Gordon, announced today.

This law was approved by Governor Dwight H. Green, June 30, 1945, to become effective six months after proclamation by the President of the United States of cessation of hostilities. The President's proclamation was issued December 31, 1946.

However, minors between the ages of 14 and 16 years may, under the new law, be employed outside of school hours and during school vacations, but not in any dangerous or hazardous factory work or in any occupation otherwise prohibited by law or by order or regulation made in pursuance of the law.

The law does not apply to the employment of a minor under 16 engaged in agricultural work or in the sale or distribution of newspapers or magazines at hours when schools are not in session.

Hours of work permitted boys and girls under 16 are limited, by law, to not more than eight hours a day, 48 hours a week, and not more than six consecutive days in one week. Children under 16 employed outside of school hours may not work more than three hours a day when school is in session, nor shall the combined hours of work outside and in school exceed a total of eight a day. Work of more than five continuous hours must be broken with an interval of at least 30 minutes for meals. Breaks of less than 30 minutes are not deemed to interrupt a continuous period of work. No minor under 16 years of age may be permitted to work between the hours of 7 p. m. and 7 a. m.

Violations of the child labor law are punishable by a fine of not more than $200 or by imprisonment in the county jail for not more than 60 days, or both. Each day during which any violation of the act continues shall be considered as a separate offense.
